

Texas General Land Office
Community Development and Revitalization Department
 Disaster Recovery Reallocation Program (DRRP) Application
Document List and Naming Convention

Applicants are required to upload documents to support responses throughout the application. The list below is provided as a guide to supporting a complete application and appropriately naming the documents to be uploaded in the TIGR Portal, the GLO system of record. Failure to properly name a file may result in delays during the review phase. Documents should be named uniquely for each respective TIGR application. This is especially critical for applicants submitting multiple applications. The list is not exhaustive.

TIGR requires users to select a “document group” and then a “document type” for every document uploaded. Each application will be assigned a unique identifier in TIGR. It is found under the “App/Contract Entity ID”. Do not use “App” in the file name. Do not use spaces or special characters other than “-“ or “_”.

Example: Someplace-DRRP-CDR17-1234_SF424

If you upload documents not identified below, use the following naming convention and add the document descriptor as indicated below:
